“The education of the child shall be directed to:

(a) the development of the child’s personality, talents and mental and physical abilities to their fullest potential;”

Parent/Carer Pledge of Commitment

Proud to be part of the UNIVERSITY OF CHICHESTER ACADEMY TRUST

I agree to support my child's learning and development by:

- Making sure my child arrives at school on time and ready to learn.
- Hearing them read regularly and engaging with and encouraging the completion of any homework.
- Supporting the school on decisions made over behaviour by reinforcing the school values and the rewards and sanctions that may apply.
- Supporting school events where possible.
- Receiving and when appropriate responding to emails from the school. (Paper messages can be sent if email communication is not available to you)
- Informing the school promptly of any problems or reasons that may affect your child's behaviour or their ability to focus on their work.
- Making sure I provide my child with the correct 'named' uniform and PE kit every day.
- Informing the school on the first morning of every absence and provide a note of explanation on my child's return.

The pledge in this agreement supports Article 18 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of a Child:

“recognition of the principle that both parents have common responsibilities for the upbringing and development of the child. Parents or, as the case may be, legal guardians, have the primary responsibility for the upbringing and development of the child. The best interests of the child will be their basic concern.”
